Guidelines for Admission fee payment

This is to notify to all the applicants who have been selected for admission in various courses of Visva-Bharati that payment of admission fees is to be done through the following steps;

The link activation process for admission fee payment will start within next 5 (five) days from the date of counselling. In case of the counselling day is followed by Saturday or any holiday, the link activation process will start from Monday or next immediate working day. Additionally, VB admission Cell will send one mail to all selected candidates in their registered mail ids regarding the activation of the payment link along with a Google form. The link will remain active for 48 hours from the date of activation. All selected candidates are requested to check their VB Application portal frequently to avoid any untoward situation on payment of admission fees (Available on the admission portal and also upload on the admission-2023 portal.

- 1) Login to the VB admission portal by using your registered ID and Password through www.vbadmission.in
- 3) Then go to the Pay now option to proceed for payment. Since the payment is a system regulated process, we request you to make online payment within the deadline. We suggest you pay from a place where net connectivity is good and fast.
- 4) After making your payment, do not forget to take a print out the final payment slip
- 5) One Google form link will be sent to the registered e-mail (search in mailbox/spam/trash). The candidates have to submit the said form after filling-up with the payment details.
- 7) Regarding admission into more than one subject;

If any applicant after admission/payment of fees in one school would like to shift to another school for admission at Visva-Bharati, then he/she needs to cancel his/her earlier admission by clicking “Withdraw Admission” by logging in to their Samarth application portal.

After withdrawal of earlier admission only, the concerned candidates will be able to take admission in another school. The refund of the earlier admission will be made within the refund period to the concerned Bank after successful withdrawal the admission for which he/she has paid the admission fees. Withdrawal and refund process is irreversible. Before calling and sending email, all applicants are requested to browse VB admission portal (<https://www.vbadmission.in/>) to get updated information.

8) If any candidate for a programme misses the admission fee, he/she may send a request to the email visvabharati.acc@visva-bharati.ac.in before 24 hrs of the expiry of payment link.
